

I am commenting on the possibility of the wisconsin No Call List being taken away or weakened. The No Call List is very important to many people. Without it they would be bombarded with unsolicited calls which not only take up their time that day, they are often repeated. The Wisconsin No Call List protects the general public from this nuisance. It should be the public's right to decide if they wish to receive such phone calls--the Wisconsin No Call List protects that right.